Notice of intent to seize (levy) your property or rights to property

Amount due immediately: $1,262.40

As we told you before, our records show an unpaid balance on your employment tax return (Form 941) for the quarter ending June 30, 2026. We sent you a notice about this balance on October 12, 2026, and we have not received full payment.

Billing summary

Tax you owed on your return	$9,380.00
Payments and credits applied	-$8,200.00
Failure-to-pay penalty	$47.20
Interest charges	$35.20
Amount due immediately	$1,262.40

What you need to do immediately

Pay the amount due by January 6, 2027 (30 days from the date of this notice). Pay online at www.irs.gov/payments, or mail a check or money order with the payment voucher.
If you can't pay the full amount, set up a payment plan at www.irs.gov/paymentplan or call us at 800-829-4933.
If you already paid this balance or set up a payment plan, call us at 800-829-4933 so we can make sure your account shows it.

Notice of intent to levy

This notice is your notice of intent to levy under Internal Revenue Code section 6331(d). If we don't receive the amount due within 30 days of the date of this notice, we may levy your state tax refund and certain other payments. Before we levy other property, we will send you a separate notice that explains your right to a hearing.

Penalties and interest

Failure-to-pay penalty: $47.20. This penalty continues to grow each month the tax stays unpaid.
Interest: $35.20. Interest is charged on unpaid tax and penalties until the balance is paid in full.

What happens next if you don't act

If you don't pay or contact us, we may file a Notice of Federal Tax Lien and continue collection. Before we levy wages, bank accounts or other property, we will send you a final notice of intent to levy with your right to a Collection Due Process hearing.
